

Individually addressed to all members of the Senate Finance Committee

October 12, 2017

Dear Senator:

The undersigned food and agricultural organizations and companies strongly support the confirmation of Gregg Doud as Chief Agricultural Negotiator in the Office of the United States Trade Representative (USTR).

The position of Chief Agricultural Negotiator with the rank of ambassador was created in 1997 by Congress for the express purpose of ensuring that U.S. agriculture is fully represented in trade negotiations at the highest possible level. U.S. agricultural exports are valued at near $130 billion for 2016 and agriculture remains one of the few sectors in the overall economy that has shown a positive trade balance for decades. The most recent figures place this value nearly $17 billion, making the role of the Chief Agricultural Negotiator as one of the most important in the entire Office of the USTR.

Gregg Doud, with a strong agricultural upbringing in Kansas, possesses well-honed agricultural domestic and international trade policy experience with the National Cattlemen's Beef Association, the U.S. Wheat Associates, as the President of the Commodity Markets Council and a key staff member of the Senate Agriculture Committee. He is dedicated to developing and enforcing fair and reasonable trade agreements to support U.S. agricultural exports. His years in representing U.S. agriculture in the international trade arena will serve the entire U.S. agricultural community as the Chief Agricultural Negotiator.

We believe Gregg Doud is an exceptional selection to fill the role of agricultural ambassador and we urge his swift confirmation by the Senate.

Sincerely,

ADM
